

Wastewater Operator Part-Time

Hey Wastewater professional, are you a master at your craft? Do you have both Integrity and Talent? If you have IT, we would like to hear from you. Here at Operators Unlimited we understand that all wastewater operators are not equal when it comes to trouble shooting and protecting the environment. We are always looking for operators who are trustworthy, honest, dependable, hardworking and willing to adapt to change quickly. We are looking for candidates with a P/C or Biological license.

Operators Unlimited is always looking for Part-Time Licensed Wastewater Professionals skilled in wastewater operations. We pay well for talent, integrity and dependability. This is a great opportunity for a talented individual.

Licensed Wastewater Operators with a Physical/Chemical or Biological Wastewater Treatment Licenses are Required.

About Us

Operators Unlimited was formed in 2001 to offer unsurpassed service to the water and wastewater industry. We are rapidly growing and looking to expand our team. Located in Upstate South Carolina, Operators Unlimited has worked hard over the years to build a reputation of excellence in the wastewater community. Why?...because we believe in our mission.

Our Purpose

Operators Unlimited exists to glorify God by helping people have a better day.

Our Mission is Transformation

At Operators Unlimited, we clean dirty water with a refreshing approach to wastewater treatment.

Transformation is why customers need us, people want to work for us, and the community continues to welcome us. By helping companies remove contaminants from water, we protect the lives of others and preserve our shared environment.

Whether we are purifying water through our products, providing exceptional customer service with our operators, or encouraging the professional development of our team and industry, we strive to transform the environment through the lives we touch.

We are determined to revolutionize the way people think about wastewater treatment. Through our actions, we seek to elevate the impersonal into relational, the replaceable into remarkable, and the transactional into transformative.

Our Core Values:

Act with Agility

Agility is our superpower: we fearlessly embrace challenges, and strive for efficiency without ever sacrificing quality. We push ourselves to exceed the expectations of our customers and to think quickly on our feet. Flexibility is the key to our shared success.

Own your Responsibility

Integrity benefits everyone. Make a mistake? Take ownership and work towards a solution. Foresee a problem? Lean on the team. We trust our people to do the right thing, and value accountability. Above all else, we say what we mean, and do what we say.

Pursue Growth

Growth is more than a goal – it's a mindset. Whether we are striving to grow professionally or to cultivate our relationships, education, and interests, we know that continual learning and improvement is key to a fulfilled life.

Live with Thankfulness

Gratitude is the fuel that keeps us going each day. Our team thrives when we approach our work with humility—and a mindset to serve others before ourselves. After all, we are here because others put us first. And for that, we are thankful.
